

MEDIA KIT AUSTRALIAN HIFI

AUSTRALIAN HI-FI MAGAZINE is Australia's longest-running and most successful hi-fi title. Published continuously since 1969, australian hi-fi has gained an international reputation for the high quality and unerring technical accuracy of its authoritative reviews of hi-fi and video components, from CD portables to state of the art audiophile systems and everything in between.

Editor Greg Borrowman is Australia's best-known and most respected audio writer, with 30 years background in audio electronics that includes teaching at TAFE. He contributes a regular column to the Sydney Morning Herald and has written about hi-fi for many Australian magazines and dailies, including The Age and the Melbourne Herald. He has also contributed to overseas hi-fi journals such as Stereophile.

At australian hi-fi he directs a team of Australian and International contributors to help readers gain the best possible sound quality in their homes by encouraging them to buy high-quality components, to regularly upgrade their systems, and use only the best quality accessories, cabling equipment and blank recording media.

Every issue of australian hi-fi is packed with dozens of equipment and music reviews, information about new products, and 'how-to' articles, so you can be guaranteed that your advertisement will always appear in a dynamic, exciting environment before an audience that is 100 per cent committed to buying a hi-fi component.

australian hi-fi is published 6 times yearly and distributed nationally. For advertising that works, call Lewis Preece on (02) 9901 6175 or 0434 439 032, or Jim Preece on (02) 9901 6150 or 0400 808 900.
